2018 Corvallis Contra Weekend

This year's Corvallis Contra Weekend features music by two high-energy bands: The Free Raisins from both coasts and Uncle Farmer from San Francisco. Calling for this fantastic weekend of dance are the delightful Susan Petrick, and the versatile Will Mentor. This urban dance camp takes place February 16-18, 2018 in Corvallis, Oregon and includes two evening dances plus dance, music, and calling workshops during the day. Registration is open from Nov 15 to Dec 7. We expect this weekend to sell out, so be sure to register early. To register, or for more information, see our website: <http://corvallisfolklore.org/ccw> .

Corvallis Balkan band Živeli to play for Hoolyeh Folk Dance, Sunday November 12th

Živeli is a Corvallis-based Balkan folk dance band who have played for Hoolyeh dances several times now to enthusiastic response. They have played for folk dances in Salem and Eugene also. Their repertoire includes dances from Bulgaria, Macedonia, Greece, Serbia, and Roma traditions. The musicians are:

Julie Firman - violin and vocal, Jeff Muhr - guitar, Bill Pfender - clarinet
Diane Rainsford - percussion and vocals, Leigh Ann Starceвич - tambura and vocals
Brian Wood - guitar, tambura and bass

They will play for the Hoolyeh Sunday dance on Sunday, November 12th, 2017 from 7 pm to 9 pm at Gatton Hall, First Congregational Church, 4515 SW West Hills Road, Corvallis. Admission for this event is $5 for adults, $3 for adult CFS members, and $3 for children.

Newsletter Changes The monthly CFS newsletter is now in PDF format and we send it by email (see below). You may need to download something to read PDF (like Adobe Reader which is free).

The CFS website has a newsletter heading and I am posting the newsletter there too (for now)
<http://corvallisfolklore.org/home/newsletter-concerts-and-information/>

There is also a membership heading: <http://corvallisfolklore.org/home/membership/>

Information and a description of the new memberplanet system is posted there.

Make sure we have your e-mail address if you want to receive the newsletter.

* please contact: membership@CorvallisFolklore.org

Membership Changes

Because costs for the paper newsletter are skyrocketing, we are moving our member database to a new online service: Memberplanet.com

What this means for Corvallis Folklore members:

- * You must have and use an email address to create or update your membership profile, and to receive notices from Corvallis Folklore
- * You will be getting Corvallis Folklore newsletters and updates via email
- * You will be able to renew your membership completely online using a credit card to pay

The transition is not going to be as simple as we had hoped, but it isn't too bad:

- * If we have your email, you should have gotten an invitation to "join" Corvallis Folklore Society at memberplanet.com. Please do go there to update your profile and create a unique password. If you have not gotten this email, or have discarded it, please contact: membership@CorvallisFolklore.org
- * If we do NOT have your email, you will have to give it to us: Send email to membership@CorvallisFolklore.org stating your name, your family members' names (if any) and your email. We'll create your account and send you an invitation to "join" as above.

"Bill Staines is a craftsman with a trunkful of unassuming, marvelous songs."

- The Washington Post

"Staines is one of the best songwriters in folk music today, penning lyrics that evoke a sense of place and a generous spirit."

- Associated Press

"Bill Staines has been my hero since 1977. He carries on the tradition of stories and characters you wish you knew."

- Nanci Griffith

Bill Staines

With Mike & Carleen McCornack

Thursday October 19 7:30 pm

Martha Room

First Methodist Church 1165 NW Monroe Ave.

For many years, part of my reward for producing Bill's concerts has been hearing him play songs in my living room. Likewise for Mike and Carleen. I've always wanted to do a smaller-scale house concert with these three wonderful musicians but didn't have the space. So, it finally hit me - rent the Martha (Best Cellar) Room, set it up as livingroom-ly as possible, and limit the audience size to 60 tickets.

So, if you like cozy concerts, sing-alongs, and an evening of great songs and beautiful harmonies, head down to Grassroots to get your tickets. (We had over 120 people at Bill's 2016 show so it's best to get your tickets early.)

Tickets: $18 in advance at Grassroots Books & Music

$20 at door; $2 discount for CFS members, seniors, & children

Tickets are also available at: <https://www.tickettomato.com/event/5044>

The Whiteside Theatre Foundation and the Corvallis Folklore Society are announcing a pre-sale of reserved and general admission tickets for the Corvallis premier concert of the Tannahill Weavers on October, 29 2017 at 7:00 pm. These tickets are available now at <http://tannahill-weavers.bpt.me>. These tickets will not be announced to the general public until August 16th so this is your opportunity to get the best seats before they are gone. 90 reserved seats in the center floor, front section of the theater and the first-row balcony are available during this presale. This presale is only announced to WTF and CFS members. They are regularly $30 but with the password "wtfcfs" on brown paper tickets website <http://tannahill-weavers.bpt.me> members qualify for $2 discount on each ticket. General admission tickets are available for $20 and also qualify for the membership discount.

* Using the Brown Paper Tickets website to choose reserved seats at the Whiteside Theatre

We got stumped trying to use this site so I made these steps to help: (They also have a 24 hour phone line)

1. Use the web link above for the concert you want to go to
2. choose the price level and put in the discount code
3. click "show available tickets" (it just says "Matching prices have been found)
4. choose a Delivery and click "Add to Cart"
5. It shows the tickets they assign
6. click "Let Me assign My Seats" (on the bottom)
7. click on the assigned ones to remove them and then click on the ones you want
8. click "save seats" and click "next"
9. then go through the billing page ending with "complete order"
10. print tickets if that is the option you chose

Note: Grass Roots and Corvallis Brewing have some reserved or general admission tickets

The Tannahill Weavers are a popular band which performs traditional Scottish music. Releasing their first album in 1976 they became notable for being one of the first popular bands to incorporate the sound of the Great Highland Bagpipe in an ensemble setting, and in doing so helped to change the sound of Scottish traditional music. In 2011 the band was inducted into the Scottish Traditional Music Hall of Fame.

The Tannahill Weavers are one of Scotland's premier traditional bands. Their diverse repertoire spans the centuries with fire-driven instrumentals, topical songs, and original ballads and lullabies. Their music demonstrates to old and young alike the rich and varied musical heritage of the Celtic people. These versatile musicians have received worldwide accolades consistently over the years for their exuberant performances and outstanding recording efforts that seemingly can't get better...yet continue to do just that.

The Tannahills have turned their acoustic excitement loose on audiences with an electrifying effect. They have that unique combination of traditional melodies, driving rhythmic accompaniment, and rich vocals that make their performances unforgettable. As the Winnipeg Free Press noted, "The Tannahill Weavers - properly harnessed - could probably power an entire city for a year on the strength of last night's concert alone. The music may be old time Celtic, but the drive and enthusiasm are akin to straight ahead rock and roll."

Born of a session in Paisley, Scotland and named for the town's historic weaving industry and local poet laureate Robert Tannahill, the group has made an international name for its special brand of Scottish music, blending the beauty of traditional melodies with the power of modern rhythms. The Tannahill Weavers began to attract attention when founding members Roy Gullane and Phil Smillie added the full-sized highland bagpipes to the on-stage presentations, the first professional Scottish folk group to successfully do so. The combination of the powerful pipe solos, Roy's driving guitar backing and lead vocals, and Phil's ethereal flute playing breathed new life into Scotland's vast repertoire of traditional melodies and songs.

Since their first visit to the United States in 1981, the Tannahills' unique combination of traditional melodies on pipes, flute and fiddle, driving rhythms on guitar and bouzouki, and powerful three and four part vocal harmonies have taken the musical community by storm. As Garrison Keillor, the host of Prairie Home Companion, remarked, "These guys are a bunch of heroes every time they go on tour in the States".

Over the years the Tannies have been trailblazers for Scottish music, and their tight harmonies and powerful, inventive arrangements have won them fans from beyond the folk and Celtic music scenes. In 2011 the band was inducted into the Scottish Traditional Music Hall of Fame, and in 2014 they are joined by innovative piper Lorne MacDougall. Lorne comes with a high pedigree, having arranged and performed pipes for the Disney Pixar movie "Brave", along with a long list of other accomplishments.

With their impending 50th anniversary in 2018, the Tannahill Weavers are firmly established as one of the premier groups on the concert stage. From reflective ballads to footstomping reels and jigs, the variety and range of the material they perform is matched only by their enthusiasm and lively Celtic spirits.

"...world class musicians with passion and a healthy sense of fun, keeping alive and making accessible the very heart of the tradition itself." - Mojo Magazine

WINTERDANCE 2017 Saturday, Dec 16, 2017, 7:30 pm

Presented by The Corvallis Folklore Society

Winterdance: A Celtic Christmas Celebration

Featuring: Molly's Revenge with Christa Burch and The Murray Irish Dancers

First Presbyterian Church, 114 SW 8th St.

Advance tickets will be available at Grass Roots Books (starting Nov. 5). Tickets will also available online at: <https://www.tickettomato.com/> (Ticket prices to be added later)

Info: (541) 753-8307 Molly's Revenge Website: <http://mollysrevenge.com>

Molly's Revenge, whose lineup includes bagpipes, fiddle, whistle, guitar, mandola, and bodhran, have toured extensively in the USA as well as Australia, China and Scotland. The band is known for its unique and infectious on-stage enthusiasm. Their arrangements of traditional jigs and reels bring these dance tunes up to date with a driving, hard-edged accent that always leaves audiences shouting for more.

Guest vocalist Christa Burch possesses a singular voice: warm, supple, expressive, intimate, and instantly recognizable. Part of a vibrant new generation of American folk singers, Christa deftly marries intuitive musicianship and storytelling through song. To balance the gentle beauty of Christa's songs, The Murray Irish Dancers bring a percussive, joyful, and colorful exuberance to the stage. This 11th Annual Celtic Christmas Celebration will capture the traditional spirit of the season and warm the hearts of all.

These folks gave an outstanding concert last year. The crowd was enthusiastic, especially when the musicians upped the tempo and the Irish dancers joined in with gusto. One of the dancers was a Regional Irish dance champion last year.
