The Best Cellar CoffeeHouse
acoustic music for an affordable price

7:30 Dave Plaehn and Jeff Hino -

Usually the 4th Friday of the month. 7:30 - 10:00 PM

They have been performing their own distinct blend of acoustic blues, folk, and original material since 1990. Plaehn and Hino explore the uncluttered powerful interplay of blues harmonica, National steel guitar, and vocals in the tradition of the great country bluesmen like Robert Johnson, Elmore James, and Bukka White.

8:30 Audrey Perkins and John Bliss - "John Bliss (guitar, mando), Page Hundemer (bass) and Audrey Perkins (vocals), come together again for an eclectic set of swing tunes, a song by Peter Mayer, one by Jason Isbell, an old gospel song, a much-needed protest song and other tunes they love."

The Best Cellar is a once-a-month evening of acoustic music sponsored by the Corvallis Folklore Society. Admission is 2-10 dollars (your choice). Kids are free and welcome. Coffee, tea, cookies, and gluten free cookies are available for purchase. We usually meet in the cellar of the Methodist Church on 11th and Monroe, in Corvallis. This time it is in the main floor sanctuary. For more information, contact Mark Weiss at mjweiss@cmug.com

Friday June 15th, 7:30 An acoustic Beatle Fest

An evening of all Beatles songs performed acoustically.

Some will remember that for many years there was a Beatle-fest held at the Fairgrounds. fewer will remember that Beatle Fest started in the late 1970's at the Old World Deli and was an evening of all acoustic arrangements of songs from John, Paul, George, and Ringo.

On June 15th we are going to re-create the original version of Beatle Fest. There will be a variety of performers including some who performed at the very beginning. AND, we will have the creator of Beatle Fest, George Beekman on hand to help M.C. the evening.

Performers will include: Rita Brown, Barbara Gladstone, Fred Towne, Bill Smythe, Audrey Perkins, Pete Kozak, Suz Doyle, Paul Regan, Chere Pereira, Cliff Pereira, Larry Beekman, George Beekman, Brian Yorgey, John Bliss, JG, and Mark Weiss.

This is a benefit for The Corvallis Folklore Society and will be held upstairs, in the Methodist Church's main sanctuary.

What: A non-CFS evening house concert with Birch Pereira and the Gin Joints from Seattle

When: Sunday, June 17 at 7 pm

Where: The Pereira's home in SW Corvallis

Sliding Scale: $15 - $20

LIMITED SEATING: To reserve seats (and get directions) either email (peartree15@comcast.net) or phone (541-753-9224).

Born out of a love of the early years of swing, Americana and rock 'n' roll, Birch Pereira & the Gin Joints is a band whose sound transports you to the time of speakeasies, honky-tonks and roadhouses. With upright bassist and vocalist Birch Pereira at its center, the band features skilled and versatile musicians who share the love of the American song traditions and a desire to offer a fresh angle on them.

Check out all the fun videos at <https://www.theginjointsband.com>

If you've seen them before, then don't miss this opportunity to hear the continuing evolution of their repertoire and skills.

The band's debut album, Dream Man, was released independently and received the Earshot Jazz Golden Ear Award for "Northwest Jazz Recording of the Year" in 2016. Their second album "Western Soul" was released in March 2018 and features western-tinged jazz and soul originals along with reinterpretations of old blues, swing and early rock'n'roll. Fans, critics and deejays have delighted in Birch Pereira's "old soul," tenor voice, the group's new, stripped-down arrangements of musical gems from the past and Pereira's ever growing repertoire of original, yet period-evoking material. Frank Gutch Jr, of No Depression described the new album thusly: "I love this album. I love the sound of it. I love the feel of it. I love the idea of it."

One of the fun aspects of the Gin Joints is that, depending on availability, Birch can draw from a large pool of highly talented Seattle musicians, who all love playing this music. Joining Birch this time are Adrian Van Batenburg on drums/percussion (returning again to Corvallis) and fine Seattle guitarist Colin Higgins (see below).

PERSONNEL

After playing cello in the Corvallis Youth Symphony, Birch Pereira got his BA in Jazz Studies (bass performance) from the University of Washington in 2005. Since then he has become well-known in Seattle as a highly versatile bass player, band leader, composer, producer/engineer and teacher. With the formation of the Gin Joints he moved out front as vocalist, arranger, composer and bass player -- and hasn't looked back since.

Adrian Van Batenburg got his BA in Jazz Studies (drumming/percussion) from University of North Texas in 2002. He has been gigging, recording, touring and teaching since moving to Seattle that year.

Colin Higgins studied jazz guitar performance at North Texas University and University of Wisconsin – Stevens Point. He graduated in 1996 with a Bachelor of Music degree from University of Wisconsin – Stevens Point. Colin moved to Seattle in the fall of 1997. He's performed in a wide range of musical settings, from jazz to classic rock, with many great Seattle musicians.

The Fire is a trio with Rebecca Lomnicky on Scottish fiddle, David Brewer on Highland pipes and whistles, and Adam Hendey on guitar & bouzouki. The Fire performs captivating Scottish music as a heartfelt and rousing musical experience. This concert will be celebrating the release of their long awaited new full-length album, which is bursting with traditional and original music. Between their entertaining and informative stage banter, vast array of instrument combinations and extensive repertoire, including everything from soaring slow airs to intricately arranged dance tunes, these charismatic performers will leave you on your feet with your hands together. In 2009, Rebecca won the 20th Annual Glenfiddich International Scottish Fiddle Championship held at Blair Castle, Blair Atholl, Scotland. David Brewer is unarguably one of the most energetic and charismatic performers of the Highland pipes in the world today. Adam spent the last year studying guitar performance at the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland in Glasgow, and brings an innovative contemporary approach to traditional music. (Rebecca is from Corvallis)
