What: Birch Pereira & the Gin Joints
plus Rex Gregory on Sax/Clarinet and Jordan Vale on trumpet.

When: Sunday, October 7th at 7 PM

Where: CHS Main Stage Theater, 1400 NW Buchanan (venue has been changed to this)

Birch Pereira & the Gin Joints has burst onto the Seattle scene delighting audiences with their western-tinged Americana and jazz originals along with modern reinterpretations of old blues, swing and early rock'n'roll tunes. Born out of a love of the American song traditions, upright bassist/vocalist/composer Pereira has created unique arrangements and originals that showcase the considerable talents of the Gin Joints musicians. With Birch's old soul tenor voice and melodic bass playing joined by drums, electric guitar, tenor saxophone/clarinet and trumpet, the band displays a dynamic range of tempos, beats, feelings and captivating solos within a single performance.

On the way to their showcase at the Arts Northwest Conference, Birch Pereira will bring an expanded version of the Gin Joints for a great evening of music at the CHS Main Stage Theater on Sunday, Oct. 7 at 7 pm. Joining the usual excellent trio of Jason Goessl on guitar and Adrian Van Batenburg on percussion will be New Orleans native Rex Gregory on sax and clarinet and Portland-based Jordan Vale on trumpet.

The first Gin Joints album, Dream Man, had fresh new arrangements of gems from the past.

The second Gin Joints Album has been described as follows:

"One of the better albums to come out of the northwest this year will be Birch Pereira & The Gin Joints *Western Soul*. Birch's band blends early American swing with old-time soul. Western Soul is an album full of elevating covers and expressive originals that is somehow even better than the 2016 Earshot Jazz award winning Dream Man." - American Standard Time

Birch is now described as "Making old songs sound new and writing new songs that sound old."

On Western Soul, Birch also dove headlong into arranging for horn/reed sections and expansion of the sound of the band; it makes for a great live experience.

Advance tickets at Grass Roots Books and online at Tickettomato.com starting Sept 1. $16 in advance for CFS members, $18 for nonmembers. Tickets at the door will cost $4 more.

The Whiteside Theatre Foundation and the Corvallis Folklore Society are announcing a pre-sale of reserved and general admission tickets for the Corvallis premier concert of Heron Valley on Friday, October 5, 2018, at 7:00 pm. These tickets are available now at HeronValley.bpt.me

These tickets will not be announced to the general public until September 1st, so this is your opportunity to get the best seats before they are gone. 90 reserved seats in the center floor, front section of the theatre and the first row balcony are available during this presale, which is being offered only to WTF and CFS members.

They are regularly $30 but with the password "wtfcfs" on the Brown Paper Tickets website, HeronValley.bpt.me, members qualify for a $2 discount on each ticket. General admission tickets are available for $20 and will also qualify for the membership discount.

Heron Valley Band from Scotland, at the Whiteside Theatre

Friday, Oct. 5, 2018, at 7 pm. <https://www.heronvalleyband.co.uk/media/>

Heron Valley are an energetic, young traditional band from Scotland who have serious enthusiasm for the music they play. Their roots lie in Scottish and Irish traditional music, while taking influence from various Folk, Country and Bluegrass styles. The five-piece, energy fueled group consists of piper/guitarist/whistle player Euan McNab, banjo player/drummer Nick Hamilton, pianist Arlene Mackechnie, guitarist/vocalist Abigail Pryde and bassist Callum Cronin. Check out the videos on the “media” link above.

Since their inception in 2014, Heron Valley have always ensured that they are conveying the highest amount of energy they have to every crowd they play to, ensuring that people who come to see them live have a fantastic experience. In 2015, they set themselves the challenge of releasing a music video and a debut single, to allow people to clearly see their intentions. This began with their set of tunes, Pressed for Time, and their original idea of filming out on open water on a yacht. The storyline took the band from performing out on this moving boat, to their journey to and performance at a gig. The idea of this was to convey to their audience the enjoyment people have when they come to see them live. This was extremely well received and racked up 85K views, with people all over the world purchasing the single. A year later, they released their second single 'Home' along with an extremely diverse music video. This time, they set off at 4AM to climb up Beinn an Lochainn, a hill in the west coast of Scotland. The video sees this journey from bottom to top and shows them playing on cliff edges in the area they all grew up. This gathered an incredible 173K views, and was shared over 2,000 times.

Due to this success, Heron Valley then quickly made a massive impact on the folk scene in Scotland, and 2016 seen them on their tour of 11 Festival stages over the UK, while 2017 seen them on a tour of over 20 festivals around the UK and Europe. Johnny Walley at Folk Music Radio was 'particularly impressed by the structure of their set, building up the energy incrementally in a series of waves, taking the audience along with them every step of the way.' With the unbelievable reaction they received at these gigs, and the demand for more recordings of their music, Heron Valley released their debut album, Roam, in May 2017. This has been extremely well received by the public, and has been the focus of their gigs during their 2017 Summer tour. This features 8 brand new tracks of self-penned songs and lively sets of tunes.

The Harris Bridge Folk Festival (Aug. 17 - 19) features PNW songwriters Anna Tivel, Jeffrey Martin, Beth Wood, Dave McGraw & Mandy Fer, Tyler Stenson, and Wilhelmina FrankZerda, our very own songwriter from just up the road in Summit, Oregon. Newsletter Changes: The monthly CFS newsletter is now in PDF format and we send it by email (see below). You may need to download something to read PDF (like Adobe Reader which is free).

The CFS website has a newsletter heading and I am posting the newsletter there too (for now) <http://corvallisfolklore.org/home/newsletter-concerts-and-information/>

There is also a membership heading: <http://corvallisfolklore.org/home/membership/>

Information and a description of the new Memberplanet system is posted there.

Make sure we have your e-mail address if you want to receive the newsletter.

* please contact: membership@CorvallisFolklore.org

Membership Changes: member database is now an online service: Memberplanet.com

What this means for Corvallis Folklore members:

- * You must have and use an email address to create or update your membership profile, and to receive notices from Corvallis Folklore
  - * You will be getting Corvallis Folklore newsletters and updates via email
  - * You will be able to renew your membership completely online using a credit card to pay
  - * If we have your email, you should have gotten an invitation to "join" Corvallis Folklore Society at memberplanet.com. Please do go there to update your profile and create a unique password. If you have not gotten this email, or have discarded it, please contact: membership@CorvallisFolklore.org
  - * If we do NOT have your email, you will have to give it to us: Send email to membership@CorvallisFolklore.org stating your name, your family members' names (if any) and your email. We'll create your account and send you an invitation to "join" as above.

New CFS Fee Structure

At the meeting of the CFS Board prior to the membership meeting on May 19th, we agreed to reorganize the membership fee structure for CFS Members, starting the beginning of our new fiscal year on July 1, 2018.

In prior years, we have had a discount structure for families since we were sending only one CFS Newsletter to each address. After our transition to email delivery, and some time seeing how that has worked, we felt that it was appropriate to change the fees to recognize that for our purposes, a member and their email are bound more tightly than the member and their physical address. With that in mind, we have decided that CFS membership will be free for the children of members and that each adult membership will be associated with a single email, with a fee of $10 per year. When your membership renewal notice comes to you, please choose the new "one size fits all" fee. If you and your family each wish to have their own membership, you should each sign up individually using your own email. As always, you may sign up or renew online or send in a check to CFS along with your contact information (or renew/sign up at an event).
