Corvallis Community Contra Band Invitation

To provide an opportunity for local musicians to experience playing for contras, Corvallis Folk Society is planning to offer occasional community based contra dances, to begin next spring.

Biweekly practices are now happening, Sunday evenings, 7-9 @ Southtown Coop. Practice & workshop times are subject to change according to players' needs.

Interested musicians are invited to contact me if you wish to participate in this adventure; and experienced contra musicians are needed to provide a base of support.

2020 Corvallis Contra Weekend, February 14- 16, 2020

This year's Corvallis Contra Weekend features music by two high-energy bands: Stomp Rocket from New England and Joyride from Portland. Calling for this fantastic weekend of dance are the versatile Sarah VanNorstrand and the delightful Lindsey Dono. This friendly urban dance camp takes place February 14- 16, 2020 in Corvallis, Oregon and includes two evening dances plus dance, music, and calling workshops during the day. All this for only $90 per person! Registration opens on Nov 15. We expect this weekend to sell out, so be sure to register early. To register, or for more information, see our website: <http://corvallisfolklore.org/ccw> .

LOCAL FOLK! Tuesday, Nov 12, 7-10 PM on the Corvallis Arts Center Stage; featuring Mitch Hider, whistler and ukulele performer. This is a collaborative program of CFS and The Arts Center. Free and open to all, the stage is open to individual musicians and groups presenting a variety of music under the large "folk" umbrella. Sign up for a set of one to three songs (10 minutes or so) in a rotating format. Or, just come to be part of an audience appreciative of local performers. Local Folk! will continue monthly, on second Tuesdays. For more information, contact Kurt Smith at k_smith1342@comcast.net or 541-270-6369 Also see: <https://corvallisfolklore.org/home/>

Just when we need to be energized through laughter, Roy Zimmerman, the country's premiere political satirist, returns to Corvallis. Roy Zimmerman's signature blend of heart and hilarity has never been more necessary. RiZe Up is ninety minutes of Roy Zimmerman's original songs, a funny and forceful affirmation of Peace and Social Justice. It's laughter and encouragement for progressive-minded people who need a lot of both. Roy's songs have been heard on HBO and Showtime, and his videos have garnered tens of millions of views. He has recorded for Warner/Reprise Records. He's shared stages with Bill Maher, Ellen DeGeneres, Holly Near, Robin Williams, Arlo Guthrie, John Oliver, Kate Clinton and George Carlin, and tours the country constantly with his wife and co-writer Melanie Harby.

"Sometimes I think satire is the most hopeful and heartfelt form of expression," says Roy, "because in calling out the world's absurdities and laughing in their face, I'm affirming the real possibility for change." No Depression Magazine says, "Without a doubt, Roy Zimmerman is among the most important political commentators of the last few decades, and in the end, it's the music that unites and disarms. With music this good and humor this insightful, there is good reason to be optimistic."

What can one person do about racism, gun violence, climate change, income inequality, bigotry, ignorance, war and greed? "Write funny songs," says Roy Zimmerman Join us for a great evening with a very unique performer. Advance tickets (cash or check only) are at Grass Roots Books: $20 for CFS members, $22 for nonmembers. Credit card purchases are available online at tickettomato.com. At the door: $22 (CFS), $24 (nonmembers) or pay what you can.

Joni Mitchell says, "Roy's lyrics move beyond poetry and achieve perfection."

"You're brilliant. Just brilliant!" -- Terry Jones, Monty Python

I have long been a huge fan, so it was a delight to hear you, and meet you -- Thanks for your wonderfully witty songs - really quite Tom Lehrer-esque." -- Richard Dawkins

Tom Lehrer himself says, "I congratulate Roy Zimmerman on reintroducing literacy to comedy songs. And the rhymes actually rhyme, they don't just 'rhyme.'"

First Presbyterian Church, 114 SW 8th St., Corvallis (8th and Monroe)

Advance tickets will be at Grass Roots Books and Troubadour Music
$22 in advance ($2 discount for CFS or seniors) Kids under 12 are $10.

Tickets will also be online at Ticket Tomato : <https://www.tickettomato.com>
(prices as above plus a small fee)

Info: (541) 753-8307 Molly's Revenge Website: <http://mollysrevenge.com>

Molly's Revenge, whose lineup includes Highland bagpipes, fiddle, whistle, guitar, mandola, and bodhran, have toured extensively in the USA as well as Australia, China and Scotland. The band is known for its unique and infectious on-stage enthusiasm. Their arrangements of traditional jigs and reels bring these dance tunes up to date with a driving, hard-edged accent that leaves audiences shouting for more.

Guest vocalist Amelia Hogan sings traditional, Irish, Scottish, British, American and contemporary folk music with lilting grace and subtle power. She transports you with a spell into another time and place, where the beansidhe (banshee) cries and lovers embrace. Haunting melodies, stirring passion, and evocative storytelling are what you'll find with Amelia's music.

The Murray Irish Dancers bring a percussive, joyful, and colorful exuberance to the stage.

This 14th Annual Celtic Christmas Celebration will capture the traditional spirit of the season and warm the hearts of all. These folks gave an outstanding concert last year. The crowd was enthusiastic, especially when the musicians upped the tempo and the Irish dancers joined in with gusto.

I would like to invite any and all Corvallis Community members to join me for an 8-week beginning guitar class on Monday nights from 7-8:30, held in Community Hall on the OSU Campus. The class is called Beginning Contemporary Guitar, and will focus on the genres of folk, rock, bluegrass, and country. There is no need to know how to read music for this class - we will be learning how to play by using lead sheets and by ear. The class starts on Monday, October 7, but the registration will be open until October 14, and I will make arrangements for students that would like to start in week 2. The class will end before Thanksgiving. Registration is through OSU's, SAC Academy, and the cost for all 8 weeks is only $10 for students and $80 for OSU and community members.

Thank you, and I hope you will join me!

Daimh – Gaelic Supergroup and un-challenged champions of straight in the eye Highland music are based around West Lochaber and the Isle of Skye. Formed around the turn of the century and taking the name from the Gaelic word for “kinship” Daimh (pronounced Dive) have taken their contemporary take of Highland and Gaelic music to over 20 countries, setting audiences alight from Moscow to San Francisco. With a reputation as giants of the Bagpipes and Fiddle, Angus Mackenzie and Gabe McVarish lead the melodic powerhouse with fellow founder member Ross Martin underpinning the groove on the Guitar. The Band is joined by “new guy” Murdo “Yogi” Cameron on Mandola and Accordion to complete the instrumental line up. Daimh has always had the renown and notoriety of working with some of the finest Gaelic singers in Scotland and the current line up only serve to cement that distinction with the addition of the Gaelic firmament’s most rapidly rising star, Ellen MacDonald on vocals. Recent accolades include last year’s award for the “Best Folk Band in Europe” at the prestigious Folkherbst competition in Germany and most recently the winner of “Folk Band of the Year” at the Scottish Traditional Music Awards

Alan was a vital member of Scotland’s legendary folk group Battlefield Band for 40 years. His groundbreaking keyboard work helped cement the band’s reputation as one of the most influential of its generation, while his songs steadily gained admirers. From beautiful ballads to a musical cycle on the life and times of Scots-born sailor John Paul Jones Alan has forged a reputation for composing songs with beguiling melodies and strong historical content. He was nominated in the 2009 Scots Tradition Awards in the ‘Composer of the Year’ category. With the ‘Batties’ Alan recorded almost 30 albums, won awards and toured all over the world, appearing at festivals in North America, Europe and Australia and New Zealand. His contribution to the band's story has helped enshrine its stature in Scottish culture, confirmed when the band was inaugurated into the Scots Traditional Music Hall of Fame in 2016. Alan has continued developing his songwriting in his partnership with Rob. He has written songs for several drama pieces, one of which was featured in the National Theatre of Scotland's 2014 powerful production 'Glasgow Girls'. He has been a regular teacher of Scots song at the prestigious Swannanoa Gathering in North Carolina and has guested both in Linn Records mammoth 12 CD series of the Complete Songs of Robert Burns and on the CD 'Life and Times of Scrooge', the solo album of Tuomas Holopainen of metal band heavyweights 'Nightwish'. The album gained a gold disc in 2014. As well as all the recordings with Battlefield band and Rob Alan has released 2 solo albums, 'The Sunlit Eye' and 'Recollection', and a songbook 'Martyrs, Rogues and Worthies'

Ryan McKasson and Eric McDonald are masters of tradition who purposefully explore the dark corners floating on its edges. Their individual artistry is enhanced when together. In short, the sum creates a greater whole. The result is an alluring complexity, full of spontaneous musicality. Pulling from parallel strands of influence, they create a swirling level of intensity that traverses darkness, light, and everywhere in between. An air of mystery pervades a sound compelling enough to transcend boundaries and appeal to music lovers of all stripes. Devon Leger of Hearth Music says, "This duo really shows how two masterful musicians listen and play off each other." The music this duo creates is to share, and live performance is the forte. Their mutual attitude stretches beyond the music. The two have been good friends ever since they met, and this is present in their live performances, which are full of organic banter and good humor to go along with the music. They create an environment of their own design, drawing in listeners without pretense. Despite both living active musical lives thousands of miles apart these two musicians have committed to working together to forge a new musical path.

The Gothard Sisters are a dynamic musical group of three sisters who play contemporary Celtic music. Through 10 years performing, touring and writing music together, the optimistic style of their music and performances continue to resonate with their fans, building a loyal international following.

Their latest all-original album release, Midnight Sun, reached #6 on the Billboard World Music charts as the highest ranking debut on the chart. The Gothard Sisters have performed in venues large and small all over the country, including a concert at the Kennedy Center's Millennium stage in Washington DC, performances with Disney Cruise line in Europe, a 20-city concert tour of Japan in 2019 and appearances at music festivals and performing arts venues nationwide.

Blending Celtic, folk, classical, world and northwest musical influences, the Gothard Sisters bring songs to life with violin, acoustic guitar, mandolin, bodhran, djembe, octave violin, whistle and vocal harmonies, creating music that is "vivid, inspirational and captivating." (Tim Carroll, Folk Words Review 2018)

Writing and recording near their home in the Pacific Northwest between touring nationally, the band has released 7 albums and has performed over 1,000 live shows over the course of their career

Mark O'Connor's An Appalachian Christmas album (2011) reached the #1 ranking on Billboard's Bluegrass Album charts and has been in the top five each year since. Hailed by critics from the Wall Street Journal, New York Times and Los Angeles Times as a top 10 album of the holiday season, it has become a perennial classic Christmas recording.

O'Connor says, "Appalachia is the original melting pot of our country featuring more diverse styles of American music than just about anywhere. This theme makes for what is a trilogy of my "Appalachia" recordings now; Appalachia Waltz, Appalachian Journey, and An Appalachian Christmas.

The CFS Fee Structure

As of July 1, 2018, CFS membership is free for the children of members and each adult membership will be associated with a single email, with a fee of $10 per year. When your membership renewal notice comes to you, please choose the new "one size fits all" fee. If you and your family each wish to have their own membership, you should each sign up individually using your own email. As always, you may sign up or renew online or send in a check to CFS along with your contact information (or renew/sign up at an event).

Newsletter Changes:

The monthly CFS Newsletter is now created in PDF format. An email link to current issue is automatically sent to members. (You need to have a reader app, such as the free Adobe Reader, to display the PDF). See also: <http://corvallisfolklore.org/home/newsletter-concerts-and-information/>

Anyone who doesn't have a computer can go to the Corvallis Public Library to:

-Ask reference staff to help you get online to look at the newsletter at: CovallisFolklore.org

Monthly Newsletter in Library Reading Room

You can find the most recent CFS Newsletter (and archives) in a notebook in the Reading room at the Corvallis Benton County Public Library. The “browsing collection” is on a window ledge at the far end of the room on the left. It is also posted on the CFS website.

The newsletter deadline is 5:00 PM on the 2nd Monday of the month. Send by e-mail to: newsletter@CorvallisFolklore.org. Text in the e-mail or most other word processor programs will work if you send them in a version that is not too new. My translator might not do the latest version. Non-CFS concert info can run no more than one-half page and won't be run opposite a CFS event.

The deadline for calendar items is 5:00 PM on the Sunday before the 2nd Monday of the month. Notices for the web calendar can be submitted any time. Submit to calendar@corvallisfolklore.org
