Jim Malcolm & Susie Malcolm (from Scotland)

<https://www.jimmalcolm.com>

Presented by The Corvallis Folklore Society

Thursday, Feb 6, 2020, 7:30 pm

First Congregational United Church of Christ, 4515 West Hills Road, Corvallis OR

Advance tickets will be Grass Roots Books: $20 in advance or $22 at the door ($2 off for CFS members and seniors). Tickets will also be online at Ticket Tomato : <https://www.tickettomato.com/event/6450>

Corvallis has a special treat coming on Feb 6. Jim Malcolm has done highly entertaining concerts here before but always by himself. I enjoyed the music they did together when we visited them in Perth, Scotland. Susie adds a lot to the show. The image shows them having a bit of fun Susie does not play an instrument, that is a frying pan. <https://corvallisfolklore.org/home/jim-susie-malcolm-2020/>

Here are David Kidman's words about their latest recording together:

“For his 14th album, favorite Scots troubadour Jim is joined by his wife Susie, who’s often sung backing vocals on Jim’s albums but here takes equal part in this collection of duets – including taking the lead on several songs – and the two singers sound very well together in happy consort throughout. Although a number of the songs embrace romance and elopement, there’s more than the usual quota of happy endings (False Lover Won Back, Braw Sallin’). There’s humor too (The Lass Of Killiecrankie, and a frisky take on Jack Foley’s ode to whisky, A Bottle O’ The Best). Even so, the album highlights for me are Jim’s own compositions., This is a most cherishable CD.”

Other Jim Malcolm reviews:

“One of the great Scottish voices of our time” Frank Hennessy, BBC Radio Wales

“Quietly, unforcefully and undeniably stunning” Mojo

“A master of well chosen words and melodic inventiveness” Rock ‘n’ Reel

“One of the finest singing voices in Scotland in any style” Living Tradition

More than three decades into his career, singer/songwriter David Wilcox continues to push himself, just as he always has. Wilcox, by so many measures, is a quintessential folk singer, telling stories full of heart, humor, and hope, substance, searching, and style. His innate sense of adventure and authenticity is why critics and colleagues, alike, have always praised not just his artistry, but his humanity, as well.

NPR wrote of their last Newport Folk Fest appearance, “The Wailin’ Jennys are more than just impeccable bluegrass harmonizers; they’re also terrific bandleaders who give their traditional roots music a sense of real reverence.” It’s this respect for their craft, as well as the Wailin’ Jennys heartfelt, impeccable vocal performances, that has cemented the trio’s reputation in folk and roots music circles.
