Interested musicians are invited to contact me if you wish to participate in this adventure; and experienced contra musicians are needed to provide a base of support.

Molly's Revenge Website: <http://mollysrevenge.com>

Molly's Revenge with on-stage enthusiasm

Molly's Revenge, whose lineup includes Highland bagpipes, fiddle, whistle, guitar, mandola, and bodhran, have toured extensively in the USA as well as Australia, China and Scotland. The band is known for its unique and infectious on-stage enthusiasm. Their arrangements of traditional jigs and reels bring these dance tunes up to date with a driving, hard-edged accent that leaves audiences shouting for more.

Guest vocalist Amelia Hogan sings traditional, Irish, Scottish, British, American and contemporary folk music with lilting grace and subtle power. She transports you with a spell into another time and place, where the banshee cries and lovers embrace. Haunting melodies, stirring passion, and evocative storytelling are what you'll find with Amelia's music.

The Murray Irish Dancers bring a percussive, joyful, and colorful exuberance to the stage.

This 14th Annual Celtic Christmas Celebration will capture the traditional spirit of the season and warm the hearts of all. These folks gave an outstanding concert last year. The crowd was enthusiastic, especially when the musicians upped the tempo and the Irish dancers joined in with gusto. The image shows the Murray Irish dancers in motion Corvallis in 2017.

Jim Malcolm & Susie Malcolm (from Scotland)

Presented by The Corvallis Folklore Society

<https://www.jimmalcolm.com>

Thursday, Feb 6, 2020, 7:30 pm

First Congregational United Church of Christ, 4515
West Hills Road, Corvallis OR

Advance tickets will be Grass Roots Books: $20 in advance or $22 at the door ($2 off for CFS members and seniors). Tickets will also be online at Ticket
Tomato : <https://www.tickettomato.com/event/6450>

Corvallis has a special treat coming on Feb 6. Jim Malcolm has done highly entertaining concerts here before but always by himself. I enjoyed the music they did together when we visited them in Perth, Scotland. Susie adds a lot to the show. The image shows them having a bit of fun Susie does not play an instrument, that is a frying pan. <https://corvallisfolklore.org/home/jim-susie-malcolm-2020/>

Here are David Kidman's words about their latest recording together:

"For his 14th album, favorite Scots troubadour Jim is joined by his wife Susie, who's often sung backing vocals on Jim's albums but here takes equal part in this collection of duets – including taking the lead on several songs – and the two singers sound very well together in happy consort throughout. Although a number of the songs embrace romance and elopement, there's more than the usual quota of happy endings (False Lover Won Back, Braw Sailin'). There's humor too (The Lass Of Killiecrankie, and a frisky take on Jack Foley's ode to whisky, A Bottle O' The Best). Even so, the album highlights for me are Jim's own compositions., This is a most cherishable CD."

Other Jim Malcolm reviews:

"One of the great Scottish voices of our time" Frank Hennessy, BBC Radio Wales

"Quietly, unforcefully and undeniably stunning" Mojo

"A master of well chosen words and melodic inventiveness" Rock 'n' Reel

"One of the finest singing voices in Scotland in any style" Living Tradition

NPR wrote of their last Newport Folk Fest appearance, “The Wailin’ Jennys are more than just impeccable bluegrass harmonizers; they’re also terrific bandleaders who give their traditional roots music a sense of real reverence.” It’s this respect for their craft, as well as the Wailin’ Jennys heartfelt, impeccable vocal performances, that has cemented the trio’s reputation in folk and roots music circles.
