Song Circle Info

<https://corvallisfolklore.org/home/song-circles/>

Bill Staines, left this life aged 74 on December 5, 2021, the result of very aggressive prostate cancer. Bill was proud to say that he had been a musician for 57 years, singing his songs and delighting audiences at colleges, clubs, and coffeehouses. He wrote and recorded too many songs to count and gained an international reputation as a gifted songwriter and performer. He played Corvallis many times to very appreciative crowds. <https://www.fosters.com/obituaries/p0171017>

CFS Zoom Song Circle

Join us every 2nd and 4th Sunday each month. As with the original song circles, there is no requirement to perform if you would rather listen. For additional information or for the code numbers you need to link up with Zoom, contact Kurt Smith at k_smith1342@comcast.net

1st Methodist Church

The Best Cellar CoffeeHouse

The Best Cellar has a full team of volunteers and a line up of great musicians just waiting for a time when it is safe to bring the community great music at a price anyone can afford. We just need enough folks to get vaccinated and well masked and spaced so that the Covid virus can no longer feed and grow.

Please contact Mark Weiss at mjweiss@cmug.com if you are interested in joining our Best Cellar is held on the last Friday of each month of the school year. Admission is a sliding scale, 2-10 dollars, your choice. Kids are free and welcome. Cookies, gluten free cookies, coffee and tea are available for fifty cents each. Usually in the cellar of the Methodist Church, on 11th and Monroe, in Corvallis. For more information contact Mark Weiss at mjweiss@cmug.com

For more than four decades now, Robin & Linda Williams have made it their mission to perform the music that they love, "a robust blend of bluegrass, folk, old-time and acoustic country that combines wryly observant lyrics with a wide-ranging melodicism." Today some might call it "Americana," but these two revered music masters were living and breathing this elixir 20 years before that label was turned into a radio format.

As live performers, they are second to none. Their stirring concerts have earned them a huge body of fans over the years. But as gifted songwriters Robin and Linda have earned an even rarer honor, the devotion and deep respect of their musical peers. As The Washington Post put it, "The Williamses are able to sum up a life in a few details with moving completeness." The list of artists who have covered their original songs include some of the greats of country music, names like Emmy Lou Harris, Tom T.Hall, George Hamilton IV, Tim & Mollie O'Brien, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Kathy Mattea and The Seldom Scene. One of their most requested songs, "Don't Let Me Come a Stranger," has been recorded by the well-known Irish singer, Mary Black.

Rooted in the traditional music of the seven Celtic nations (Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Cornwall, The Isle of Man, French Brittany and Spanish Galicia), Golden Bough has become a popular and in-demand group on both sides of the Atlantic. Since their formation in 1980, this trio of modern day minstrels has traveled great distances to numerous countries, to bring their music to enthusiastic folk fans the world over. Backing themselves on an array of acoustic instruments; Celtic harp, guitar, octave-mandolin, mandolin, accordion, violin, penny-whistle and bodhran, they blend their voices in the pristine harmonies that have become a Golden Bough trademark. To date they have released over 30 recordings. In the recording studio, as well as on stage, Golden Bough captures the essence and joy of traditional music.

ON-line Concerts and Festivals

<https://corvallisfolklore.org/home/concerts/>

Greetings.

Registration for 2022 In-Person Singtime Frolics opened online on Saturday, 5 February at 6:00 p.m. (Pacific time). The link for Singtime and registration is HERE.

Singtime Frolics, now in its 37th year, is Portland FolkMusic Society's annual weekend of folksinging with song circles, concerts, workshops, and a guest artist all at beautiful and inspiring Menucha Retreat and Conference Center overlooking the Columbia River Gorge. Our guest artist this year is Alex Sturbaum, a talented young traditional singer, instrumentalist, and songwriter. Participants socialize, eat, and sing together, often late into the night, starting at 5:00 p.m. Friday afternoon on 25 March and leave Sunday early afternoon on the 27th inspired and thrilled.

Since we are limiting registration to 65 participants (because of Covid), we expect the weekend to sell out quickly. If you intend to register, please do so early Saturday evening. Please also consider volunteering to help during the weekend or to lead a workshop or song circle.

Largely because of the participant limitation, the cost is higher. Please make use of our robust scholarship fund if the cost makes you hesitate about registering. Otherwise, consider donating to the scholarship fund if you can. The cost is $225 for the basic rate and $295 for a private room.

While the attractions (the company, the music, the scenery, getting away from it all) are obvious, we want to be clear about reducing the risks of spreading Covid. We are taking the following precautions:

- All participants must be fully vaccinated by 11 March (bring documented proof).
- All participants must be symptom-free.
- Masks shall be worn indoors at all times (except while eating and singing solo).
- Solo singing will occur only in larger spaces.

--The dining room will be at 50% capacity with adequate room for distancing.
--No more than two people will be assigned to any one sleeping room (with the possible exception of the largest dorm rooms for participants who agree).
--Ventilation will be a high priority (bring warm clothing).
We hope to see you in March!
Cheers, David Ingerson for the Singtime Committee
